The Carmel Pine Cone

Editor's Column

Editor's note: Today, the Pine Cone is proud to present in this column Mrs. Mariquita Brey's message to all the students she has known during her 22 years on the faculty of Carmel High School.

To My Children (past and present) from and in C.H.S.

After twenty-two years of loving you and beating you, I must say adios, amigos. I don't want to go; in fact, as you have often heard me say, I intended to teach you until I was swept away in a dust pan. Now I must go, but I do want to express to you, if I can, how much you have meant to me, and how greatly I have enjoyed my association with you these many years.

Your generosity, your inherent kindness and your appreciation for what I have tried to do, have made these past twenty-two years a joy I shall always carry in my heart.

May I now give you my last lecture? You are beset on all sides by would-be prophets of gloom and doom. Heed them not. This is a beautiful world—it is up to you to see that it continues to be so. People are, by and large, decent, kindly folk. You who are still teenagers are decidedly not what the aforesaid prophets would have you be, inconsiderate, rude and unappreciative. Remember when you are parents what I have so often told you. Adults owe you nothing material—not youth centers or the like—but one thing they do owe you twenty-four hours out of the twenty-four, and that is a good example. Be so to your children and those of your neighbors.

Be proud to be an American.

Remember that a country is only as great as the people within it. Keep the torch of freedom and liberty burning brightly by constant watchfulness.

Remember that the only real discipline is self-discipline. Live up to the best that is within you. Should you fail, get up and try again. Even mud puddles can reflect the stars.

You are a splendid group of young people whom I have been privileged to know and in some small way to help. I wish I were thirty years younger that I might start my teaching career all over again. There is no art to equal teaching nor is any profession so rewarding.

Now I must follow new trails so ~~vaya con Dios~~, my children, my love follows you always.

Mariquita Brey

By Harry W. Fletcher

On a roadside bathed in sunlight,
Where the air was warm and still,
There I built my house and homesite
On an overlooking hill.

It was peaceful on my byway,
'Til they widened out the road,
And they made my lane a highway
Where the heavy traffic flowed.

Oh, the noise of motors roaring—
Open mufflers shocked my ear;
Followed by the airplanes soaring
When an airport opened near.

Oh, I grant that modern science
Has its merits and its joys;
But deplore the meek compliance
With unnecessary noise.

Mrs. Brey Honored By Students And Carmel High School Faculty

Last week, Carmel High School students and faculty members honored Mrs. Mariquita Brey, pictured above, who has retired after teaching English and world literature at the high school for 22 years.

In "El Padre, '65," the school yearbook, students paid tribute to Mrs. Brey in a two-page spread which included her picture and a farewell message written by Andrew Miller, one of her students. It says:

"You are leaving us but you leave with pride knowing you have done your duty and you well deserve the title of teacher. To teach is to show and explain. You have shown hundreds of students the glory of Aeschylus in Athens, of Virgil in Rome, of Shakespeare in England. You have shown your students the genius of Dante, Chaucer and Cervantes, the spirit of Isaiah, Mohammed and Buddha. You have shown your students the immense scope of modern history, ancient and modern, and civilization, east and west. Above all, with the humor and wisdom of a true scholar, you have shown your students the affinity of great minds and the likeness of great aspirations existing on every continent and in every era. Yes, you have done your work well.

"Thank you, Mrs. Brey."

During last week's academic awards assembly at Carmel High School, Mrs. Jane Ellen Down, who announced the names of award winners, said that "a special award which was not given often" would be made and named Mrs. Brey as the recipient. Kathy Burkett, a senior, then presented Mrs. Brey with a gold bracelet on behalf of the students in her world literature class.

She was further honored by a resolution of appreciation adopted by the Associated Students of Carmel High School. Kathy Burkett copied this and it was framed before being given to Mrs. Brey.

Saturday evening, the high school faculty honored Mrs. Brey with a banquet at The Shutters restaurant.

In addition to members of the teaching staff and their spouses, guests at the party were Mrs. Brey's mother, Mrs. Charles Derby, special friends, members of the board of education and Medill Bair, Superintendent of the Carmel Unified School District, and Mrs. Bair. This group included Mr. and Mrs. Ed Neroda, Mrs. Mildred Riker, Mrs. Matthew Beaton, Carmel's Mayor Herbert Blanks and Mrs. Blanks, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Fehring, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Kovacevich, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Poulos, Mrs. Hannah Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. Steven Sassoon, Dr. and Mrs. Hilton Bialek and Mr. and Mrs. Georges Picard.

Presented to the guest of honor during the festivity was a silver tray. "Our children, Mariquita, are better by far," was the inscription chosen to be engraved on this gift from her fellow teachers.

This line was the refrain in a ballade read at the party by its author, Frederic E. (Buzz) Rainer, who for the past ten years has

Norberg Blasts But Fails To Move City Hall

Whether or not the city hall shall be moved, temporarily, to Sunset School is still an unresolved question in the minds of all city councilmen at last night's meeting except Gunnar Norberg. He aimed a 14-minute verbal barrage in favor of the move at the Sunset Commission, Arts, Inc., the city's financial advisors and their attorneys, City Attorney John Morse and fellow councilmen. He

Library Involved In Litigation Over Girl Scout House

The city council last night authorized City Attorney John Morse to take any action he sees fit in litigation involving the Harrison Memorial Library over the Carmel Girl Scout House.

Fred Duhring, president of the library board, says he has a facsimile of the original deed that shows "Carmel Library Association, also called Carmel Library," in 1928, deeded to "the trustees of the Carmel Branch of the Girl Scouts of America," the lot cater-corner from the present library on which the burned ruins of the Girl Scout House now stand. (Last night Mr. Morse said these will be levelled next week.)

The title to the land is not clear so the attorney for the Monterey Bay Area Girl Scout Council has asked any group which thinks it has a claim to the property to state its claim within the next two weeks before the sale of the property to "a church" for $42,000 is confirmed. This involves the present library board.

The Carmel Girl Scouts became affiliated with the Monterey Bay Area council prior to the fire which destroyed the facility. Present Carmel Girl Scout trustees maintain they did not relinquish ownership of the property with this affiliation. The council contends they did. Now, maybe, it will be proved that the library, too, has a claim on the property.

COUNCIL APPOINTMENTS

The city council, last night, approved Mayor Herbert Blanks' appointments of Donald Craig to the board of trustees of the Harrison Memorial Library and Mrs. Madeleine Leoni to the Carmel Arts Commission.

Mr. Craig, Carmel High School teacher of Spanish, is returning to the library board from which he resigned two years ago because he was to spend a year in Europe on sabbatical leave.

Mrs. Leoni is the daughter of Frank Powers, who was the original developer of Carmel with Frank Devendorf.

Carmel High School To Graduate 196 Students

The 24th annual commencement at Carmel High School will be held on Bardarson Field next Friday evening at 6 o'clock. During the ceremonies on the football field, 196 students will receive diplomas from Mrs. Herbert Blanks, trustee of the Carmel Unified School District.

The graduates will file down the steps to their seats facing the stands to the music of Elgar's "Pomp and Circumstance" played by the high school band, which will also play the recessional

"Fanfare and Recessional," by Polyhar.

The Reverend Peter Farmer of All Saints' Episcopal Church will deliver the invocation. The benediction will be given by The Reverend Burkert Cree of the Community Church of the Monterey Peninsula. Graduates and audiences will join in the Salute to the Flag, led by William Stowers, and in singing "The Star Spangled Banner."

Valedictorian of the class of 1965 is Lois Watson. Salutatorian of the class is Linda Lachmund.

Fred Gehring, president of the class, will present the Class of 1965 gift to the school during the ceremonies.

Principal Warren Edwards will present the class. The names of those who have won the honors and awards he will announce are printed on Page Nine of this issue of the Pine Cone. The names of all 1965 graduates will also be found on this page.

peppered his shots with terminology including "numskulls, blood-suckers, unadulterated nonsense, blood money, neophyte commission, willy-nilly non-profit group and legal hair-splitting."

"I am a valid and proper elected representative of the people," he declared but concluded by saying "In a sense, I am talking to stone walls and ears that will not hear."

Last night, the city council unanimously voted to reconsider a previous decision to move the city hall and building inspector's office to Sunset as soon after July 1 as feasible. This decision was made following consideration of reports from the Sunset Commission and Carmel Planning Commission. Both pointed out that it might not now be necessary to make the move as a financial expedient to provide the city with a new police station.

The Sunset Commission's report also pointed out that having the city hall and administrative offices at Sunset might prevent development of the school site as a municipal and cultural center by a non-profit organization.

Also considered by the council last night was the civic center site development plan prepared by Burde, Shaw Associates.

This plan located the city hall, police station and corporation yard on city-owned land at Junipero and Fourth according to the Carmel General Plan.

The immediate purpose of the site plan was for the council to discover the feasibility of moving the police station, as soon as possible, to the Junipero site. Proposed at the time the plan was authorized was a sale of the present city hall to finance the new police station, also relocating the city hall at Sunset.

Last night, after hearing the two reports and seeing the plan, councilmen were still undecided about whether or not the city can afford to build the police station without selling the present city hall. As a result, they put off final action on relocating the city hall until Monday night when they will have more information.

City Attorney John Morse informed them that, in the light of the two reports they had heard, it was permissible for them not to relocate the city hall and that such a move might be regarded "improper" in respect to the city's master plan and statements offering for sale the bonds which made possible the $575,000 purchase of Sunset from the Carmel Unified School District. The attorneys of the city's financial advisors on the bond issue pointed out that it would only be legal to have a city hall at Sunset if it were situated in a "surplus area" and did not frustrate the ultimate development of the site as cultural and community center, he added.

These opinions triggered Mr. Norberg's barrage. He declared they were legal hair-splitting, then Wasn't that judo exhibition at Saturday's Babe Ruth Breakfast exciting? Imagine those two dainty frails, eight-year-old Gwen Takayama and lovely Mrs. Phyllis Rasmussen, being able to throw that big giant of an instructor, Charles Kalani, around like that! When they asked for volunteers we were going to go up but we found we'd eaten too many flapjacks.

Thank heavens!

That very special meeting of the Carmel Planning Commission last week turned out to be a delightful farewell party for traveler Dorothy von Meier, who is the Commission's chairman. As guests arrived they were given a zoning map of the premises, by their hosts, Planning Director Floyd Adams and his wife, Gwen. This was a very original way of telling people where to go for drinks and food, where to sit and talk, where to wash one's hands and where to end up gaily singing folk songs along with City Clerk Hugh Bayless and his guitar.

At 2:00 p.m. last Monday, the stillness of a dull afternoon was broken by a most welcome sound — and sight. The Carmel High School band always gives a concert in the park in the spring and here the school year was practically over and somehow they hadn't got around to it. So Music Director John Farr decided it was now or never. The young musicians donned their bright new uniforms and gave their town a very pleasant surprise.

Jim McGrury dropped in to see us the other day. (The McGrurys are the ones who, with Mrs. McGrury's sister, Stella Guichard, ran Carmel's first drygoods store.) It had been quite a while since we'd seen him. "My, you're looking well," we said. "Yep," he replied, "I'm four score years now and haven't been hit by a truck yet!"

A member of the Carmel High cafeteria staff is named Hash. Ray Hash, to be precise.

In thumbing through back editions we came across Ruth McElroy's description of arrangements for the approaching wedding of her daughter, Mary, in which she was quoted as saying, "The bride's mother will be resplendent in last year's blue silk, with appliques of tomato soup."

Anita Dormody reports that among the best finds at the book sale for Pioneer House was a remarkable old volume entitled The Mystery of The Universe. It was found on the mystery table, of course.

Bill Stahl, in marvelous shape after his serious operation and three months' recuperation, says the only thing that irked him during his stay at that great Stanford hospital was the room situation. At the very beginning he asked for a private room—he was in such pain and so nervous he really needed it—and was given a three-bed one. After the preliminary tests he asked again and got a two-bed room. Several days after the operation they finally moved him into a beautiful private room in the most secluded section of the building. Peace, at last. And then they made him get up and walk around all day!

I told you a few weeks ago about Carmel School Board Chairman Bob Newton's handsome new gavel and how efficient it is. Well, at his board's May 31 luncheon, Monterey Peninsula Community Chest President Charlie Page discovered a new way of getting attention—and he wasn't even trying to. He just knocked the ashes out of his old Dunhill pipe.

Clara Canepa looked at her calendar on June 2 and saw it was her turn to run the snack bar at Little League that night. "Oh goody!" she thought, "I won't have to stay home washing dishes and scrubbing floors this night." The game had been over for about half an hour and she was still there working. Doing what? Oh, washing dishes and scrubbing floors. The orange drink machine had chosen that night to go to pieces.

Bernie Mello and Dewie Dutton have moved into one of Carmel's oldest little wooden cottages and it suits them to a T. They love firing up the heater every time they want a shower—the springy, sloping floor in the bedroom—the gracefully undulating cobwebs in the pitch of the ceiling—and they especially love the hole in the wall. They do? Yes. An old icebox drip outlet, somebody had neatly covered it up but the girls would have none of that. Heavens no, it's just perfect for a cat door, they said to each other, and next day went out and got a cat.

TOWN HOUSE PROGRAMS

"Crisis in Black and White," by Charles E. Silberman, will be the topic for the discussion group at the Carmel Foundation Town House on Sunday from 2-4 p.m. All interested persons are welcome to participate in or listen to the program, after which refreshments will be served.

Next Wednesday at 3 p.m., Mrs. Thelma Fahrenkrog of the P.G. and E. Company will demonstrate "Cooking on the New Small Appliances," which will be of special interest to those who must prepare meals for one or two people. The Carmel Girl Scouts will serve tea at 4 p.m.

On Monday, a bus will take members of the foundation for a picnic lunch at Henry Cowell State Park.

Lloyd Jenkins, Ruth Warshawsky And Gertrude Chappell To Play In Circle's 'Night Of The Iguana'

A stellar cast has been announced for tomorrow's opening of "The Night of the Iguana" at the Golden Bough Circle Theatre. The Tennessee Williams drama will have three outstanding Peninsula actors in leading roles.

Lloyd Jenkins, who plays the Reverend T. Lawrence Shannon, was cast by Tennessee Williams in the leading role of Donald Wynham's "The Starless Air," when playwright Williams made his debut as a director in Houston, Texas. Among Jenkins's many screen, stage, radio and TV appearances are roles in the MGM film, "To Scratch a Thief," soon to be released, and in Robinson Jeffers's "Medea" at the Forest Theater in Carmel. A recording of Jenkins reading poems by Jeffers is to be issued shortly by Fantasy Records.

Ruth Warshawsky, star and producer of the "Medea" in which Jenkins played her husband, is cast as the lusty innkeeper, Maxine Faulk, in "The Night of the Iguana." Mrs. Warshawsky recently completed a seven-month tour with Sam Levene in "Seidman and Son," and then repeated the role at the Players' Ring in Los Angeles. She appeared in "Awake and Sing" at the Theatre by the Sea in Venice, California, last season, and as the Virgin Mary in Hollywood's Pilgrimage Play.

To the third key role of Williams's exciting play, Gertrude Chappell brings many years of experience in Peninsula productions, following a professional career on stage and screen. She has leading roles to her credit in almost every local theatre, recent highlights among them being several Circle appearances. In "The Iguana," Mrs. Chappell is cast as Hannah Jelkes, the itinerant artist, a part played on the screen by Deborah Kerr.

The large cast also includes Ron Martin, Kate Stoney, Sally Richmond, Robert Cole, Peter Kuehn, Georgene Dovolis, Chris Hovick, Michelle LaMothe, Jesse and Fred Velasquez.

Harry Fletcher, recently seen in "Many Moons" at the First Theatre, makes his Circle debut in the role of Jonathan Coffin, the 97-year-old poet. Harry is a former poetry editor of the Pine Cone.

"The Night of the Iguana" will be seen at 8:30 p.m. on Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings for the next seven weekends.

Anna Hart

Private services were held yesterday morning in the Paul Mortuary Chapel for Miss Anna Phoebe Hart, who died Friday morning at her Carmel home after a period of failing health. Born in Bellota, California, on December 30, 1884, Miss Hart was a retired captain in the U.S. Army Nurses Corps before her retirement in 1945.

After graduating from training at Franklin Hospital in San Francisco in 1914, Miss Hart enlisted in the Army Nurse Corps and saw service in both World Wars. In addition to duty in this country, she also was assigned to the Philippines and China.

Captain Hart leaves two nieces, Mrs. Velma Jean Pasmore and Miss Marion Perow of Carmel, and a nephew, Robert Hart Perow of Long Beach.

Following the services conducted by Dr. George Hunter Hall of the Carmel Presbyterian Church, interment took place in the Little

GOING TO BOY'S STATE

A faculty panel at Carmel High School has chosen Craig Cunningham to be Carmel American Legion Post 512 representative at Boy's State in Sacramento this month. He will join 800 other high school youths on June 19 to participate in a week-long program modeled on city, county and state government in California which includes running for election to office in various governmental capacities. The purpose of Boy's State, sponsored by the American Legion, Department of California, is to bring together young men from almost every high school in California who are interested in learning more about how the government of this state functions.

Craig is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cunningham.

Jeff Hudelson was chosen to be his alternate. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Hudelson.

Vacation Plans Of MPC Instructors

Carmel residents who are on the faculty of Monterey Peninsula Junior College plan varied summer vacation activities.

President George J. Faul will be on duty at the college. Teaching at MPC during the summer will be Millard Gump, Mrs. Rosetta Smith, Mrs. Sharon Coniglio, Miss Marjorie Landon, August Armanasco, David Hopkins and Alex Gonzales.

Travelers will include Miss Angie Machado (New Mexico); Lynne Bynum (Western Canada); Miss Margaret Thompson (South Pacific).

Study and research will occupy Rod Holmgren who will be on an independent study project at UC-Berkeley. Dr. Idelle Sullins will work on an index to her forthcoming book, "Grammar for the College Clinic" as well as research for two other books at Stanford and UC libraries.

Philip Nash will take summer courses at San Jose State College and Miss Diane Smith will do the same at Stanford University.

Return To France

On Monday, Mrs. Jehanne Salinger Carlson will board a jet plane in Los Angeles for the polar route flight to Paris, where she will set foot on French soil for the first time in 39½ years. Her son, former U.S. Senator Pierre Salinger, will be waiting at the airport to meet her, and together they will celebrate his 40th birthday.

The European trip is in the nature of a pilgrimage for Mrs. Carlson, who is looking forward to renewing the acquaintance of cousins with whom she has corresponded throughout the years and to meeting three she has never seen in her life. Although she will make her headquarters in Paris, where two close friends and former schoolmates await her coming, the visits to relatives will take her through several sections of France. If time permits, Mrs. Carlson also will fly to Barcelona.

On her way home, she plans to visit her son Richard Salinger and his family in Chicago, where he is associated with the Science Curriculum Project at the University of Illinois.

From press reports, it is believed that during the trip to France Mrs. Carlson will be attending the marriage of her son, Pierre, and Nicole Gillmann.

New Attorney In Carmel

Among the candidates who passed the 1965 spring bar examination for admission to the practice of law in California is Dale Wayne Junta of Pebble Beach, who recently joined the law firm of Malcolm Millard and Richard Tourangeau in Carmel. He is a graduate of Harvard College and Hastings Law School in San Francisco.

Both Mr. Junta and his wife, Susan, are former Bay Area residents and no strangers to this area. With their son, eight-month-old Benjamin, the Juntas will soon move into a house they have purchased in Carmel Knolls.

An enthusiastic tennis player, Mr. Junta picked up a trophy as a member of the men's doubles team winning the Memorial Day Weekend Men's Doubles Championships at Pebble Beach.

Reunion In Carmel

Five of the six members of the 1910 graduating class at Reedley High School had a reunion in Carmel this week. The ladies held their last reunion here five years ago and both times made Carmel Cottages their headquarters. They said the sixth member of their class was a boy and they have never heard from him since graduation. Here until yesterday for the celebration were Mrs. Erwin Frane of Berkeley; Mrs. F. E. Leedom of Oakland; Mrs. Walter Long of Nice; Mrs. Ray Moncrief of Orosi; Mrs. Lloyd Fink of Crows Landing; Mrs. Frank Carlisle of Reedley; and Mrs. Willis Peugh of Fresno. They all graduated, too, from Reedley Grammar School.

Margaret Dienelt Here

Mrs. Bert Dienelt who divides her residence between homes in Carmel Valley, Puerto Vallarta, Mexico, and the hotel she restored, Gunn House at Sonora in the Mother Lode country, arrived here recently. This week she went to Sonora for several days but expects to be back in the Valley this weekend. Mr. and Mrs. Dienelt also own the Mission Ranch.

Francesca Wants To Teach

Francesca Farr, daughter of Senator Fred S. Farr, has returned from her travels in South America and Mexico filled with unswerving determination to return to teach in one of the countries she visited. Her grasp of the fundamental reasons for misunderstanding between peoples and her empathy for the Latin Americans have a large part in her decision.

In order to realize her ambition, she must perfect her Spanish and will therefore enter the Monterey Institute of Foreign Studies this summer.

Leaving Carmel on Valentine's Day, Francesca and a cousin flew to Brazil, thence to Uruguay for a ten-day stay. Next was Buenos Aires, where they were guests of another cousin. A surprise and delight of their two months in Argentina was the month spent in the southern part of Bariloche, in the dramatic and beautiful lake country. So taken were they with the area, that they cut short their trip through the lakes into Chile and returned to Bariloche.

Peru was next on their itinerary, with time to explore Cuzco and the surrounding countryside. The ancient Inca city of Machu Pichu was a breathtaking sight and, according to Francesca, the highlight of their trip.

In Colombia, the girls met Francesca's brother, Sam, in Medellin, where he is working for the Peace Corps. With him, they traveled for three weeks around the country, visiting other Peace Corps members and learning something of the Colombians.

On their return trip, Francesca and her cousin flew to Mexico City for a short visit.

Spate Of Future Graduates

Competing for attention with June brides and graduates are the following additions to Carmel's nursery set, who, with one exception, were all born at Community Hospital.

Jane Ellen Hunting, the first child of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Hunting, arrived on May 25. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Hunting of Seattle and of Mrs. Marshall Stoner of Nebraska.

On the same day, Mr. and Mrs. Athanas Lolov became the parents of a boy, Christopher LeVan.

Another family first is Tina Marshall, born on May 27, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Marshall. Her paternal grandmother is Mrs. Mary Mazanti of Alliance, Ohio, and her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Esther Cashero, is a resident of Wichita, Kansas.

An earlier arrival, on April 30 at Monterey Hospital, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Roth, who has been named Sherri Elizabeth.

On Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baxter welcomed a fourth son, William Murray, who is already at home and the center of curiosity for his brothers, Michael, five, David, three and Howard II, two.

Celebrating the event are grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carney and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baxter, all of Carmel.

UC Davis Graduates

Two Carmel students will receive bachelor of arts degrees at the University of California at Davis commencement tomorrow evening. They are Kathleen Aldrich, who majored in Spanish, and Joy Fehring, a sociology major.

The Ballade of The Departing Teacher

Because we consider that teaching's an art,
And one needed badly in schools of today.
Your Board is compelled to confess from the start
We're certainly sorry you're going away
We know that you must, but allow us to say:
Because of your words and the person you are,
The standards you set and the love you display,
Our children, Mariquita, are better by far.

Whatever the methods you used to impart
The legends and lore of an earlier day,
They strengthened the mind and revealed to the heart
The glory and wisdom in pageant and play.
The fabulous myths in Sumerian clay
Inspired your students to reach for a star;
You told of these wonders in just such a way—
Our children, Mariquita, are better by far.

The colors that shine through the windows of Chartres,
The pyramids, proud in their war with decay,
The glories of Greece that will never depart
Are some of the splendors you helped to portray.
And each of us knows he can never assay
Your record in teaching which time cannot mar.
There's only one thought that might help to repay:
Our children, Mariquita, are better by far.

Envoy

Prince, as the lady takes her way
Under the shade of the deodar,
Thank her for us but be certain to say:
Our children, Mariquita, are better by far.

FREDERIC E. RAINER

Editor's note: This is the poem written and read by Mr. Rainer at the faculty banquet honoring Mrs. Mariquita Brey, who has retired from the staff of Carmel High School. For 22 years, Mrs. Brey taught English and world literature.

taught English at Carmel High. On May 16, Mrs. Brey was the guest of honor at another party. This was a stationery shower given by the women on the faculty of Carmel High School. On June 12, she will share honors with Miss Gertrude Rendtorff of Carmel, who is retiring after 34 years at Monterey High School where she has been dean of girls. This event will be a tea at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Wright, vice principal of Carmel High School, given by Delta Kappa Gamma, honorary education society, of which both Mrs. Brey and Miss Rendtorff are members.

After she has seen "all my darlings graduate," as Mrs. Brey promised the Class of 1965 she would do, she will return to the home she has purchased between Palm Springs and Palm Desert at Rancho Mirage.

"Like Carmel it has no sidewalks," says Mrs. Brey who reluctantly sold her house here for two reasons. The first was that she found she needed to live in a warmer, dryer climate. The second was that she will be nearer her son, Michael Derby McClure, of Los Angeles and her two grandsons, Craig Derby McClure, eight, and Roderick Campbell McClure, six years old.

Mike, who is associated with the personnel relations department of the Los Angeles Times, frequently brings his sons to their grandmother's house on a hill overlooking the Coachella Valley.

Next year, Craig will join her household and share with her "the only swimming pool on the block," Mrs. Brey hopes.

American Legion Elects Officers

On Monday, members of Carmel American Legion Post 512 elected officers to lead them in service to the community, state and nation.

Frank M. Girard is the new post commander. Other officers are Richard Lawitzke, first vice commander; Rolland Pilon, second vice commander; Paul Artellan, adjutant; Ted Bergquist, sergeant at arms; Robert Smith, historian; Robert Lomonaco, chaplain; Ker-man Alderson, finance officer; James M. Kelsey, judge advocate.

Elected to the executive board of Post 512 were Tom Riley, Spencer Warner, James Kelsey, Alvin Chapin and Richard Zimmerman.

In addition to sending a Carmel High School youth to Boy's State, the Carmel American Legion Post will add the name of this year's Gold "C" award winners to a plaque at the school. This award is made by the superintendent of schools to two graduating seniors judged outstanding in scholarship, athletics and citizenship.

Sallie Clark To Be Married

The engagement of Sallie Abbott Clark to Joel Dean Funderburg was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie G. Clark Jr., at a reception Sunday afternoon at the Clark home in Rancho Rio Vista. Mr. Funderburg is the son of Mrs. Paul Funderburg and the late Mr. Funderburg of Pacific Grove.

Sallie, now a student of French and political science at the Monterey Institute of Foreign Studies, attended San Jose State College, where she was affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. She graduated from the Catlin-Gabel School in Portland, Oregon, and made her debut at the 1961 Christmas Cotillion in that city. She is a provisional member of the Junior League of the Monterey Peninsula.

Sallie has one brother, Lawrence Clark of Carmel.

Her fiancé, who served four years with the U.S. Navy, will graduate from Monterey Peninsula College at the end of the year. He is the brother of John, James and Stephen Funderburg of Pacific Grove and David Funderburg of Marina.

Following their wedding in August, the young couple will make their home in Carmel until Joel completes his year at college.

Altar Society Installation

Ladies of the Carmel Mission parish were invited to attend the annual luncheon of the Carmel Mission Altar Society yesterday at the Carmel Golf and Country Club. An important part of the social function was the installation of new officers for the year.

NEW CHURCH PRESIDENT

Mrs. Frances S. Wells, a Christian Science teacher and practitioner from San Antonio, Texas, was named president at the June 7 Annual Meeting of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

Local residents who have been attending the annual meeting this week in Boston include Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ireland, Mrs. J. D. Lowsley, Miss Gwendolyn de Forest, and Mr. John L. Conrad.

Fosters Attend Graduation

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Foster and their daughter, Anne, were present at Amherst College's commencement ceremonies on May 28 to see the Fosters' son, James Malcolm (Joey), receive his diploma. A physics major, Joey has an enviable record in both indoor and outdoor track and this Spring was a member of the Amherst relay team that set two new records for the indoor mile and two-mile events at Madison Square Garden. Before graduation he was awarded a third varsity letter in track this year.

Joey's running abilities showed up in four years of varsity track at Carmel High School, from which he graduated in 1960. His record at Carmel High includes student activities and scholastic honors.

Marcia Will Go To Yale

Marcia McGinnis, who graduates tomorrow from San Jose State College, has been accepted by Yale University as a candidate for a master's degree in fine arts, majoring in graphic design, and will enroll at Yale in the Fall.

A Carmel High School graduate, Marcia's talent in the field of the graphic arts has been demonstrated many times. She served as a guest editor of Mademoiselle magazine last year and most recently was awarded second prize in the travel poster contest sponsored by the Visitors Convention Bureau of the Monterey Chamber of Commerce.

Small and large printing orders are quickly filled at The Pine Cone Press. Dial Carmel 624-3881.

Graduation And Travels

Natalie Stewart, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hampton S. Stewart Jr. of Pebble Beach, received an associate of arts degree at commencement ceremonies at Stephens College, Missouri, this week. She will enroll this fall at the University of Southern California.

With her cousin, Clonard Bunn, a student at the University of Arizona, Natalie will leave tomorrow by plane for a student tour of Europe. Their flight to London will arrive there within a couple of hours of that carrying Chris Bunn, Clonard's brother, who is joining two friends from San Francisco for a motorcycle tour of the continent this summer. Chris finished the school year at Cal Poly with honors this week and returned home just in time to celebrate his 21st birthday today.

The group of young people will have a few days to "do" London together before going their separate ways.

Tour Of British Isles

Mrs. C. R. Vickery's first venture in air travel was a jet flight from New York to London and she returned recently full of enthusiasm for this type of transportation.

Mrs. Vickery, who is secretary of the Carmel Citizens' Committee, drove East in March, via Mississippi, to meet her granddaughter, Patricia Morthland, in New York City. They then made the flight to London to visit another granddaughter, Joan Morthland, before touring England and Scotland. Because of her interest in English classics, Mrs. Vickery says she felt quite at home in London, where the weather was not much damper than Carmel's.

They enjoyed Scotland with its numerous castles and cathedrals, and while there traced their family clan, whose head, the Earl of Dalhousie, has a castle at Dundee.

Foreign Studies Diploma

Gregory Fedran of Carmel received a bachelor of arts degree in Russian language and literature from the Monterey Institute of Foreign Studies at commencement ceremonies on May 29. Diplomas were presented to seven graduates by Gaspard Weiss, president of the school.

With his wife, Mr. Fedran has been a resident since 1955 and for over nine years was an instructor at the Defense Language Institute at the Monterey Presidio.

Letters To The Editor . . .

Editor,
Carmel Pine Cone

Since you are interested in reporting the activities of Carmel residents, I thought you might like to know that several boys residing in the Carmel area regularly attend the Monterey Peninsula Judo Academy.

My son has been taking Judo for over a year, and the benefits that he has derived—in terms of physical well-being and scholastic improvement—are highly gratifying to me as a parent.

One very commendable aspect of the program is the emphasis that is placed by the instructors on courtesy, self restraint, and also on the importance of effort in any project or task undertaken. Today, when one frequently hears the complaint that these standards are becoming ever-increasingly elusive, their emphasis is indeed praiseworthy.

Sincerely yours,
Paul Spinks

It was shocking to read that Senators Hugh M. Burns (Fresno), Fred Farr (Carmel), and John C. Begovich (Jackson) killed the Anti-Drunk Driving Law for 1965. The citizens who elected these men should remember what they did at the next election! With the National Safety Council and our own Highway Department urging such a law, it would seem that California should get in line with other states and pass this law.

New York was the first state to pass this law many years ago. In 1961 Massachusetts became the 34th state. Isn't it time for the people of California to rise up and elect legislators who will represent them and who will vote to make our highways safe from the drinking driver!

The purpose of this letter is to explain to you a public service offered by the Monterey County Bar Association, in the hope that you will, as a public service, forward the information to your readers.

The bar association, in 1958, under the leadership of William R. Kennedy, organized the Legal Aid Society, a non-profit corporation. The purpose of Legal Aid is to provide free legal services to those unable to pay for them. Over 100 lawyers in the County volunteer their time in support of the program.

Each Saturday morning, from 9:00 to 12:00 o'clock, a local attorney occupies the office of the Seaside Chamber of Commerce at 505 Broadway, and the Alisal Chamber of Commerce at 924 North Sanborn Road, Salinas. Each applicant for Legal Aid must, before meeting the lawyer, pay a $1.00 registration fee and satisfy the secretary that he or she is eligible for free services. Once eligibility is established, the applicant is entitled to any legal services necessary to solve a problem.

There are several restrictions as to the nature of the cases accepted. In criminal cases the court will appoint an attorney if the defendant cannot pay for one. In workman's compensation and tort (e.g. personal injury, auto accident) cases there is generally a means of obtaining payment for legal help. The applicant, in these cases, is referred to Lawyer's Reference Service. Divorces will not be taken unless it is determined that a social need exists.

This is a very brief outline of our activities.

Very truly yours,
William B. Burleigh
President, Legal Aid Society

My residence has been in Carmel for three years. Many times, I've carefully patronized local shops, rather than comparative shopping in nearby towns. The other day, I bought an expensive article in one local shop, and then, shortly thereafter, found it unsuitable. Today, when I returned it, unused, the owner informed me that there were "no returns anywhere in Carmel." When I showed considerable surprise at this, he said "Exchange only. No one has ever questioned this local policy before in this store."

I'm amazed! There was no sign. I've never had to return anything locally until now. Is this true? Is it impossible to return purchases in Carmel? He said that everybody knew it. Do they? I had no need for any other of his merchandise. But, more than that, it is a principle! Is this the way Carmel business stays in the black? Encourage impulse buying, and then refuse refunds, without any posted notice to that effect?

Is it really "Buyer BEWARE" in my dearly beloved little city? I hope not. Carmel has its uniqueness and service to offer to residents. Why brave the traffic and parking difficulties otherwise? And I think a cheerful refund policy is a cornerstone of service. Or, at the very least, a sign warning the customer that no such service is available.

MARKET MEMOS

By William H. Godwin, Jr. of Dean Witter & Co.

The market was subjected to a rather sharp correction in the early part of this past week as investors responded rather quickly to Reserve Board Chairman Martin's remarks concerning risks sustaining the economy without a major setback. While interpretations of his views were mixed, there was no doubt that a cautionary attitude prevailed as prices slipped away and volume advanced. As the Dow Jones Industrials dropped below the 900 mark, there was some evidence of at least a temporary climax, with volume approaching the seven million share level.

Throughout the periods of liquidations, there was better-than-average support for representative electronic, airline, office equipment and so-called glamour equities. In addition, several previously favored groups which had experienced sizeable corrections were able to rally. In this regard, units of the television, copper, and sulphur sections lifted in the final session.

For the past several days, American Telephone & Telegraph has been able to absorb offerings quite well and is a candidate for potential leadership on a recovery. Issue has been a long consolidation phase, and as switching operations are accomplished, American Telephone & Telegraph is likely to be favored.

FROM A LIBRARIAN'S NOTEBOOK

By Ruth Galvin Thornburg

From 1905 to 1908, Pierre Teilhard de Chardin was situated in Cairo as a teacher in the Jesuit school there. Still a young man, he wrote letters to his family which are said to show "an unaffected gravity, a smiling objectivity, and the graciousness of being as modest and as good as he was magnificently gifted." High praise for a man still in his early twenties. These letters have been collected in a book entitled LETTERS FROM EGYPT, 1905-1908.

One of the daring ones is Heinrich Harrer, an adventurer and traveler who wrote SEVEN YEARS IN TIBET. His new one is called I CAME FROM THE STONE AGE, and it is an account of a perilous trek through the interior of New Guinea. Many of the illustrations are in color. The form of the book is that of a diary, and this gives it a clarity and an immediacy which brings the reader right into the action of the journey.

A new biography of the Vice President is by Winthrop Griffith and is entitled HUMPHREY, A CANDID BIOGRAPHY. The author is a long-time friend of Mr. Humphrey and knows him personally and politically. He quotes a Washington reporter who said, "Humphrey is a remarkable human being. He is typical of the very best characteristics of the United States. He is enormously energetic, enormously optimistic, deeply idealistic, supremely resourceful, and never depressed or put off by the stupidity of the human race. These are not necessarily unique American characteristics, but they are American and they are the best we have. Humphrey, better than anyone, typifies them."

Enough money to pay for all the beer consumed in Great Britain during a 24-hour period was once stolen from the Royal Mail train in 28 minutes. The robbery was expertly planned but the getaway was bungled and the bungling led to the capture of the robbers, one of whom later got away. More interesting than a mystery novel is THE GREAT TRAIN ROBBERY by John Gosling and Dennis Craig. Pictures, too.

A beautiful book by Stewart Wavell is entitled THE NAGA KING'S DAUGHTER. It is an account of his travels as a member of an expedition to explore relics of ancient civilizations in Southeast Asia. The author is chairman of the travel programs for the British Broadcasting Corporation. He was born in Malaya and is imbued with the folklore and traditions of Asia. He speaks the Chinese, Malay and Burmese languages. With such a background, he writes with authority. The color photographs which illustrate the book are delightful.

Robert Richardson, who was formerly on the staff of the Mount Wilson and Palomar observatories, has a new book on space travel which is entitled MARS. Earth-bound we may be, but this book, with pictures by Chesley Bonestel, will make us realize the tremendous vastness of space and the great achievement of our space men.

Ah so! Another book, another week, another column.

Tickets Available For Bach Festival Concert At Mission

The box office for the Carmel Bach Festival is now open 10:00 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday, it was announced today by Michel MacKay, executive secretary. It is located in the Sunset Terrace Building, at Mission and Eighth.

The 28th festival, under the baton of Maestro Sandor Salgo, who this year celebrates his 10th anniversary with the festival, extends from July 16 through July 25.

Mrs. MacKay announces that there are a few tickets left for the 11 p.m. Carmel Mission concert on July 21. This is always one of the most popular events of the festival.

Friday night's program features Carole Bogard singing the soprano role in the Cantata "Wie schoen leuchtet der morgenstern," as well as a concerto for clavier and recorders with Ralph Linsley and Roberta and Colin Sterne, and the Magnificat with Marie Gibson, Pauline Law, Edward Jameson and Ara Berberian.

On both Saturday nights the Opera "Orfeo" by Monteverdi will be presented fully staged and costumed. Sunday's program is the Passion according to St. Matthew, with Ara Berberian, and James Schwabacher.

Tickets are available for both weekend performances, the second weekend being a repeat of the first. Tickets are nearly gone for Monday and Tuesday night performances, and Thursday night is completely sold out. Telephone the Festival office, 624-1521, for further information.

Reading Subcommittee Divides To Give CUSD Board Majority And Minority Written Reports

The reading subcommittee of the Citizens Advisory Committee gave minority and majority reports to Carmel Unified School District board of education on May 26. Members of this committee were Mrs. Frank Bresk, Mrs. Edward Lee, Mrs. Donald Parker, Mrs. William Satchell, Mrs. Gardner Schetter, Mrs. Raymond Smith, Dr. and Mrs. Keith White and Mrs. Sidney Williams. Those who prepared the minority report were Mrs. Richard Bell, Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Satchell and Mrs. Smith.

The majority report made recommendations on procedures, in-service training, teacher aides, communication and libraries.

In the section devoted to procedures, the group recommended that a written evaluation of a student's progress in reading should be maintained and that successive teachers should refer to this cumulative record.

Children with emotional problems affecting reading development and learning should be identified and provided with appropriate help was the second reading procedure suggestion to the board.

The third procedural proposal was that a variety of reading methods should be used at all grade levels.

Other recommendations in this category were that greater emphasis should be given to planning experimental reading programs by specialists in each method; a continuous program of vocabulary development should be strengthened at all levels; and that careful consideration should be given to the hiring of teachers because capable teachers are the foundation of a successful reading program.

Recommendations made by the reading subcommittee for in-service training included continuance of the workshop program; grant free time for teachers to visit other schools both in and outside the district; dissemination of knowledge gained by experimental reading programs within the district; the development of a professional library for the use of all teachers.

The subcommittee recommended that teacher-aides should be employed to free teachers from time-consuming tasks, thus providing them with time for more communication and planning among themselves. A corps of parent and community volunteers should be organized to assist teachers when needed was another recommendation in the teacher-aide section.

The section on communication advised increase in this area—at teacher to teacher, teacher to parent and teacher to student levels; that parent-teacher conferences be made more meaningful; teacher-student conferences be held at regular intervals to estimate a student's work and evaluate progress and weaknesses; and that parents be given students' reading lists at the beginning of each school year and the summer school program.

Under the heading of libraries, the subcommittee advocated the employment of a district librarian; provision should be made as soon as possible for building a new library at Carmel High School and enlarging the libraries at Carmelo and Captain Cooper schools.

The subcommittee also stated that a citizens committee should be appointed soon to make a thorough study of all libraries in the school district and a paperback book store be added to the intermediate school. Other library recommendations were that the high school library should be open in the evenings and on Saturday morning; all libraries should be open during the summer vacation period as well as during the school year; reading aids to increase speed and comprehension should be included in school libraries; reference materials and centers should be increased.

Included in specific recommendations at various grade levels were the employment of "a roving reading specialist" and the statement that the district should "continue the highly commendable program of remedial reading which we found outstanding in both method and equipment."

MINORITY REPORT

The minority report on reading submitted to the board was more than twice as long as the majority report. It dealt with in-service and research; personnel; developmental reading; the first R; communication; and oral and written development.

In-service reading workshops should be increased and it should continue to be mandatory for all teachers and principals to participate in in-service reading programs, the minority group suggested, and added that reading methods workshops should be included in the orientation of all new teachers in September. These provisions are necessary to provide continuity in reading instruction throughout the district, the minority group observed.

The minority report suggested acquisition of a roving bookmobile to take materials to each school and a controlled program of experimentation within the district.

"Currently there is a feeling that our district indulges in a great deal of experimentation without the proper preparation, carrying it for a sufficient period of time, using it for in-service

1945 REUNION

The Carmel High School Class of 1945 is planning a 20th reunion and asks that all members get in touch with those making the arrangements. Please call Mrs. Kenneth Holbrook (624-1132) or Stanley Ewig (624-3178).

training or making an evaluation. There is also the feeling that methods are often 'adapted' before they have been tried as the authors intended," the reading minority report stated.

Under the personnel heading, this report asked that (a) each school have its own principal and that these principals give not less than 50 percent of their time to guiding teachers and serving as instructional leaders; (b) principals supplement their work by choosing instruction leaders within the schools; (c) every principal know how the reading objectives are being implemented in each classroom; (d) teacher-principal communication be strengthened.

"We feel strongly that children deserve a principal who can give all his time to working out a curriculum to meet the needs of a particular school of children and provide direct help to classroom teachers. Teachers are asking, 'Where are there good programs that I can observe?' Part of the role of a principal would be to help his faculty to search out new programs, materials and tech-

MORE HELPFUL TIPS FROM PG&E

How pilot lights work; and what you can do when they don't.

How to tell when a pilot is out.

You turn on a burner and it doesn't light. Or the furnace won't go on. Or there's no hot water. This probably means the pilot isn't on.

Gas range pilots.

A gas range usually has more than one pilot. If you're not sure where your pilots are located, and can't find your owner's manual, call us. If you've found the pilot and it's out, be sure all burners are turned off, allow a few minutes for the air to clear, then touch a lighted match to the pilot opening. The small blue pilot flame should then begin to burn, and the burner should light when you turn on the control. If the pilot or the burner fails to light, call us. We'll send a man out to check it.

Furnace pilots.

If the gas heater or furnace pilot goes out, turn off the main burner valve. Allow 10 or 15 minutes for any gas to clear before re-lighting the pilot. Follow the instructions shown on the equipment. With the pilot re-lighted, the heater or furnace should operate. If it won't, call us.

Water heaters and dryers.

Gas water heaters and dryers of recent make turn off if the pilot goes out, and bear instructions for re-lighting the pilot. If you can't get the appliance operating, call us or your appliance dealer.

Leave pilots lit.

Some folks prefer to shut off furnaces and water heaters when they go away on vacation. You'll find it more convenient to turn off the main burner, but not the pilot. Then, your furnace is ready to work on a cold day. Most water heaters can be turned to "PILOT." This keeps the pilot lighted, but prevents the main burner from heating water.

Gas leaks.

Warning: Never look for a gas leak with a lighted match or candle. Any suspected gas leak should be reported promptly to PG&E. We'll send a service man out to check it.

PG&E is ready to help.

If you call for a PG&E serviceman to check out any gas leak or an inoperative gas appliance, ask him to show you where your gas pilots are located and how to go about re-lighting them. If repairs or parts are required for an appliance, call an appliance or furnace man.

Your biggest household bargain.

Providing dependable gas and electric service at low rates is our most important job. Since 1961, there have been three major reductions in PG&E rates. Today's PG&E household customer pays less than 30 years ago for the same amount of gas and electricity. PG&E service is a bigger bargain than ever.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON

Assurance of God's care for all is offered in the Bible Lesson entitled "God the Preserver of Man" which will be heard at Christian Science churches this Sunday. Bible readings include these verses from Psalms: "The Lord is high unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth . . . The Lord preserveth all them that love him."

A correlative passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will also be included: "Dost thou love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind? This command includes much, even the surrender of all merely material sensation, affection, and worship" (p. 9).

The Golden Text is from Proverbs (29:25): "Who so putteth his trust in the Lord shall be safe."

Art News . . . .

Jay Hannah, member of the Carmel Art Association, and a member of the association's board of directors, has recently won a cash award in the category of mixed media at the 10th Annual Walnut Creek Art Show. Judges for the show were James Brown III, director of the Oakland Museum of Art; Thomas Leighton, painter; Wayne Miller, photographer; Louis Siegfried, painter; Rudy Turk, of the Richmond Art Center.

Another Peninsulan, Brooke Elgie, won a purchase award in the field of photography.

The monthly competitive art exhibit at the Carmel Craft Studios will be held Tuesday from 3 to 4 p.m., with the prizes in merchandise to be awarded at 4 p.m. Entry is open to all artists and work may be submitted in any medium.

The Pacific Grove Museum of Natural History announces a special exhibition of paintings by the Navajo artist, Beaten Yazz, (Jimmy Toddy) who was born at Wide Ruins, Arizona in 1925. He began painting at the age of eight with an uncommon natural ability that has compelled him to record the panorama of the desert and Navajo life.

Although Beaten Yazz has had some art instruction, he paints from a natural instinct for artistic expression. He received brief training at the Santa Fe Indian School under Mrs. Juan Montoya and at Wingate Indian School and Sherman Institute. He has attended the Indian School in Stewart, Nevada, and studied for several weeks with Yasuo Kuniyoshi under a scholarship from Mills College.

For the most part, Beaten Yazz works with casein on mat board. However, he occasionally uses oils and pen and ink.

The exhibit of 30 paintings will remain on view through the month of June. The hours are 10:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. daily except Monday.

In a shamelessly honest capturing of the scenic beauty of the area, John W. Wardman, newcomer from Los Angeles, communicates his appreciation of Carmel and the Peninsula as well as other areas. His one-man show at the Salinas Library, essentially in pastels, will be on view throughout June.

John Gross, library director, expresses in this presentation his belief in providing diversity in art forms, also that good and lasting art, like good and lasting books or music, is a valuable part of the lives of the viewing public.

Members of the Monterey Peninsula chapter of the American Federation of Art are invited to a preview of the Andrea Spark exhibition at AFA headquarters on Sunday afternoon. A membership card will be required for admittance.

Miss Spark was awarded a one-man show last October in the first AFA competition and exhibition for Monterey County artists. She was selected for this honor by Paul Mills, curator of the Oakland Art Museum, who judged the pictures submitted for the competition.

Warren Brandon, well known San Francisco artist, will conduct a one-week workshop in painting at the Marina Art Barn beginning June 21.

Mr. Brandon has been honored with more than 30 one-man shows, one at the Artists Guild here last summer. He is listed in "Who's Who in American Art" and "Who's Who in the West." One of the 78 American artists whose paintings are reproduced in Volume Two of "Prize Winning Oil Paintings," he was proposed as a fellow of the Royal Society of Artists in 1964.

Through Saturday, from 1-7 p.m., an exhibit of wall hangings and photographs by Will Worthley may be seen at the community room of the Carmel Rancho Shopping Center. The exhibit opened last Saturday.

Reading Subcommittee Gave Minority And Majority Reports

"With our district set up as it is currently, with no assistant superintendent in charge of curriculum and with no district-wide area specialists, the importance of the principal's role is of prime concern.

"Our district, weak in a coordinated program of research and in-service training, would profit greatly by such cooperation. The principals should be constantly in touch with new ideas, feed materials to the library for professionals, bring in speakers, arrange training sessions, and help institute, coordinate and evaluate experimental research.

"Teachers should feel free to discuss with their principals any professional problems and receive help necessary to their growth," the minority report added.

Other minority report personnel recommendations were that a leading specialist in reading should be hired as a consultant to review the district's curriculum in this subject annually.

A developmental reading proposal in the report was that reading laboratories be set up at the intermediate and high schools and each be staffed by a full-time reading specialist, also that classes should be assigned with their teacher for necessary work in this laboratory. Individual diagnostic testing by the specialist was advised, too.

The first R area of the report stated that reading should be the first subject taught and that in the early grades each student should receive a minimum of two hours of instruction in this subject daily.

A more formal reading program should be made available to kindergarten pupils and interested parents of pre-school children should have available to them materials to stimulate their children to read were two other reading minority report suggestions to the board.

The report included two pages of specific suggestions to develop better communication throughout the school district and an almost equal amount of space was given to recommendations to provide more emphasis on oral and written development in fields related to reading.

Most Valuable High School Athlete Named

At the annual Carmel High Sports Banquet last week, all-around athlete Bill Stowers was named the 1965 Most Valuable Athlete of the Year. Previously winner of the Jim Kelsey Award at the 1964 Carmel High Football Banquet, Bill led in all-Mission Trail Athletic League honors as a tackle. He also earned varsity letters in basketball and baseball.

Other awards for most valuable players were made to Ralph Juarez, baseball; Don Blanks, basketball; Pete Steffen and Craig Olsen, tennis; Lawson Little III, golf; Randy Mapstead, track; and Bud Smith, swimming.

Randy Mapstead was also named top sprinter on the school team for citation on the three-way Milar Track Trophy. Additional track awards went to Dave Erickson, top field competitor, and to Rick Piper, best distance runner.

U.C. REGENT SCHOLARSHIP

Roy Walter Prowell, son of Professor and Mrs. Roy W. Prowell of Pebble Beach, has been awarded a University of California Regent Scholarship, an honorarium based on academic excellence and participation in student activities. He has just completed two years at U.C. at Davis and will enroll in the U.C. Dental School in San Francisco next fall.

Roy, a member of DeMolay and Theta Xi fraternity, has been a musician with the Cal Aggie Marching Band. He was a winner of the Theta Xi Scholarship Trophy with straight A average for the fall term of 1964.

In the picture above, Charlotte, who is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Townsend of Carmel, is entering the city hall for her marriage on the arm of Rear Admiral C. W. Fisher (USN Ret.), president of the Carmel Citizens Committee, an organization formed to preserve the unique character of this community. The bride served on the executive board of this committee, also was a member of the Harrison Memorial Library Board. Admiral Fisher gave her in marriage. Behind her are her bridesmaids, Melissa Taylor of Pebble Beach and Bernice Mello of Carmel.

Originality is what sets Carmel apart from other communities, Perry Newberry always contended, and Charlotte Townsend proved to be a true Carmelite on May 29 when she became the bride of Squire Hurst of Chicago. She chose to be married in Carmel City Hall after obtaining special permission from the city council, and is seen, above, during the candlelit ceremony performed by Dr. H. W. At extreme right is City Clerk Hugh Bayless who was an usher. Pine boughs, symbolic of her love for Carmel trees, adorned the council table and were used as background for the altar. Baroque music played on the cello and viola by Mr. and Mrs. Ken Dobel reminded those present of the Bach Festival.

RIVER SCHOOL PRINCIPAL HONORED

The teachers of River School have purchased a picture by Tom Hamil which will be placed in the school library to honor Principal Richard O'Connell, who has resigned.

Mr. Hamil, a member of the River School faculty, writes and illustrates children's books. A local scene is depicted in the painting which the teachers have chosen. It will be presented to Mr. O'Connell as an appreciation of his association with them and remain in the school which he has headed for the past nine years.

Republican Women Plan Luncheon

Mrs. Kenneth MacPherson, program chairman of the Carmel Republican Women's Club, has arranged a variety of interesting features for the club's luncheon meeting at Holman's Guest Ranch in Carmel Valley on Wednesday from noon to 3 p.m.

Strolling musicians, an opportunity to view the lovely Holman home, delicious picnic fare prepared by club members and a chance to win, for a small donation, a $25 merchandise order at a Carmel gourmet market are among the enticements.

In a more serious vein will be an address by William J. Ebert of San Francisco, whose topic will be "Individual Responsibility," bringing into focus the average voters responsibility and the elements making up a successful political organization. Mr. Ebert's service in the party has run the gamut from precinct worker to floor manager of California Republican Assembly Convention for Goldwater in Fresno and committee member at the National Convention. He is a member of the Republican State Central Committee and has held numerous offices in the C.R.A.

Through the courtesy of Mrs. Jack Westland of Pebble Beach, whose husband was for 12 years Republican Representative from the state of Washington, a quilt made by the Republican Congressional wives of the 88th Congress will be on display. The unique quilt bears the signatures of the members of Congress embroidered on grey elephants which are appliqued to squares in red, white and blue. It is to be a gift to the next Republican President.

Republicans are urged to come and bring their friends. Admission is $1.00, and anyone in need of transportation may call Mrs. John Rennels at 624-2201.

ACCIDENT VICTIM IMPROVING

Reported improving at Community Hospital is Miss Sharon M. Denham of Monterey, who sustained major injuries when she drove her auto over the cliff onto the beach at the foot of Santa Lucia Avenue early Monday morning.

According to reports of the Carmel police and the California Highway Patrol, Miss Denham may have dozed at the wheel as she was driving south on Scenic Drive.

Charlotte had requested that no rice, only rose petals, be thrown as she left the church with her husband. They were showered with these, gathered by friends, before climbing into the 1909 Pierce Arrow stage, above, to ride with other members of the wedding party up Ocean Avenue to the reception in the patio of Crichton House on Mission Street. The ancient vehicle was driven by its owner, Al Hood of Carmel. On the sidewalk are Dr. Bradford Summers who served as Squire Hurst's best man, and the matron of honor, Mrs. Franklin Fontes, both of San Francisco and, at extreme right, Kitty Bayless, the wife of Carmel's city clerk.

General Avery

Word has been received of the death of Brigadier General Ray Longfellow Avery (USA Ret.), who died at Walter Reed Hospital in Washington, D.C. after a brief illness. General Avery, who was born in Manchester, New Hampshire, in 1884, was a graduate of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point with the class of 1908. General and Mrs. Avery made many friends in Carmel during the 20 years they made their home at Scenic Drive and Eleventh Street following General Avery's retirement in 1945.

CARMEL VALLEY — A "fixer-upper" with the work already done! (Most people think "fixing up" would be fun until actually faced with the opportunity.) The owner has been transferred and reluctantly offers the remarkable results of a year of labor, achieved only because of his "know how" and the help of an artistic little wife. Two bedrooms (one opens on a sunny patio), a beautiful bath, an "out of this world" kitchen, big living room with windows on three sides and some "million dollar" oaks on a lovely level lot high in the Robles Del Rio area. A gold nugget for the lucky miner at $24,500.

MISSION FIELDS — Perfection prevails in this spotless three bedroom, two bath home with family room, two car garage, brick patio and large neatly landscaped yard. Vacant and ready for immediate occupancy. FHA and G.I. appraisals have been requested with excellent results expected, or, will qualify for best conventional financing. GE kitchen includes garbage disposal. Drive by 66 Oliver Road and convince yourself of the value. Offered at $27,500.

MISSION ANNIVERSARY

June 3, was the 195th anniversary of the founding of Carmel Mission Basilica by Father Junipero Serra.

Pass-Throughs To 'Perish' But Not Dear Old Mother

"Another small bit of the Carmel tradition will perish," was the reason Councilman Gunnar Norberg gave last night for voting against the closing of the center island pedestrian pass-throughs in the middle of blocks on Ocean Avenue. However, an affirmative vote by other councilmen will permit them to be replaced with planting.

The pass-throughs have been declared a hazard by the safety engineer of the city's insurance carrier. Last night Councilmen Stephen Grant and James Buffington also were of the opinion that the islands are a traffic hazard and a nuisance.

"Anyone can observe that conditions are not what they used to be," Mr. Buffington stated and went on to say that youths often dash in and out of the pass-through in the block between Mission and San Carlos as they cross the street regardless of traffic.

He also pointed out that, during "an influx" of visitors, "one-day wonders" eat lunch in the islands and at other times guitar players occupy the benches in the islands.

"I don't know if this is traditional," he concluded.

Mr. Grant pointed out that at dusk it was difficult to see pedestrians crossing Ocean Avenue by means of the islands because of the city's poor lighting system. He added that all over the United States elderly persons "Ooh" and "Aah" when they find he is from Carmel. They tell him they spent their honeymoon here and plan to return some day for a second one. He said it would be dreadful if "mother was killed" at twilight while crossing the street in an island.

"Steve has topped anything you can say," Mayor Herbert Blanks remarked when Mr. Norberg appeared to be about to protest further. The Mayor then called the islands "an anachronism" and their fate was sealed when he added an "Aye" to Mr. Grant and Mr. Buffington's affirmative votes on the motion to replace the pass-throughs with planting.

Norberg Blasts, But Fails To Move City Hall

(Continued from Page One) called the city's financial advisors "bloodsuckers" who had prepared the city's official statement offering the Sunset bonds for sale. This statement said that the ultimate development of the Sunset property as a cultural and community center would be undertaken by a non-profit group.

Mr. Norberg read a clause in this statement which said "this official statement is not to be construed as a contract with the purchasers of the bonds."

Therefore, he saw no reason why any commitment to the purchasers of the bonds should make the city "give away for $1 a year to some nebulous entity called Arts, Inc. something for which we will have paid $1 million dollars."

He was referring to the fact that members of Arts, Inc., told the Sunset Commission that one site they were considering was Sunset School but would not continue to do so if the city hall were located on the school site.

"Are we numskulls that we shouldn't think of moving the city hall?" he contended and added that it was "pure, unadulterated nonsense" to give heed to the opinions of the attorneys of the city's financial consultants as Mr. Morse had advised.

Earlier, Mr. Norberg had opposed the council heading recommendations in the reports of the planning commission and the Sunset Commission especially "the neophyte Sunset Commission."

"The four of us are the people who govern this municipality," he declared when urging the council to disregard the reports and the advice of the city attorney. He compared those who might consider any development of Sunset by a non-profit group such as Arts, Inc. to "headless horsemen marching aimlessly anywhere."

"We have a right to do what we want with the four acres we are buying with blood money," Mr. Norberg told other councilmen in a plea for them not to listen to the Sunset and planning commission, both bodies subordinate to the council.

Councilman James Buffington replied by saying that members of the Sunset Commission had been picked because they were "talented" and he appreciated the time and thought they had given to their recommendation that the council reconsider the city hall move because it might be a detriment to the ultimate development of a cultural center. Mr. Buffington also said he thought it would be "great" to get money to accomplish this from "outside sources."

Councilman Stephen Grant said he wanted to know if the problem of financing a new police station could be accomplished without selling the present city hall.

"I have to concur with Mr. Buffington and Mr. Grant," Mayor Herbert Blanks stated. He, too, wanted to find out if the city can get a new police station without the necessity of moving or selling the present city hall, or taking "any action to balk development of the Sunset property."

At the request of the Mayor, City Comptroller Hugh Bayless reported that, at the end of the coming fiscal year, a hostelry tax sum of $215,000 would have accrued for capital improvements such as municipal structures. The Mayor tried to elicit from Walter Burde, whose firm prepared the civic center plan presented last night, if this money would cover construction of the police station shown in the plan.

Mr. Burde said it seemed an adequate range and construction might fall within it.

"No one can make a prudent decision without a 'can-do' basis," the Mayor observed, even though Mr. Bayless assured him the $215,000 figure appeared sufficient.

The Mayor's opinion was upheld by Carvell Baldwin, a citizen of Carmel and a retired banker, who was in the audience. He suggested

Musical Version Of 'Mary Poppins' At Forest Theater

On Sunday at 2 p.m., Mary Poppins, Bert, and a Cherub Choir appear at the Forest Theater in a musical, following a highly successful performance given earlier this year at the Church of the Wayfarer.

Mary Poppins, better known to her friends as Ann Welchner, is the director of the group, and has made many appearances in light opera and recitals in Washington, D.C., New York, Naples, Italy, and Tokyo, Japan. Locally, she is a soloist at the Church of the Wayfarer, and was featured in the Fort Ord production of "Oklahoma."

Singing in the role of Bert will be Nick Le Feuvre Jr., who is well known to local Studio Theatre audiences, not only as a talented actor, but as an equally talented scenic designer.

Members of the 14-voice Cherub Choir, 7 to 12 years old, include Laura Shook, Randy Smith, Sherrie Welchner, Brad Clark, Nancy Rideout, Jodi Dixon, Patty Eyster, Sara Harnish, Carrie Shook, Charlotte May, Chip Dixon, Jennifer Smythe, and Kathy Kelly. The group will be accompanied by Fred Schaad at the piano.

The Mary Poppins musical is that if the city hall were sold this property would be put back on the tax roll.

"Not if it's bought by a church," Mr. Grant countered, then stated that the council should have an opportunity to digest the civic center plan and obtain more information.

This the council will do before reconsidering the relocation of the city hall Monday night.
